Please visit Community Service Center Locations to find cooling centers.

There is a heat advisory currently in affect continuing through Friday, June 22nd. Please remember a few key things:

1. Check on your neighbors, especially seniors as they are the people in greatest danger in extreme heat and humidity.
2. Drink plenty of water!
3. Avoid going out in the heat during the hottest part of the day.
4. Wear light, loose fitting clothing and wear a hat to protect your head and face.
5. Remember that all Chicago police district headquarters, libraries, and public buildings can be used as temporary cooling centers.

For more helpful hints, please review a notice from OEMC by clicking here.

If you're interested in receiving alerts and notices such as these directly from OEMC via text, please take a few minutes to sign up at www.AlertChicago.com.

And remember, if you need any assistance, please call or email my office.

Sincerely,

Michele
