Dear Friends,

Celebrate the 4th of July with me at the Chicago History Museum!

This year I am honored to be the keynote speaker at the Chicago History Museum's 53rd annual 4th of July Celebration. Highlights include patriotic musical performances, a reading of the Declaration of Independence, and a children's costume parade led by the World's Tallest Uncle Sam. The event finishes with the King's Regiment firing REAL Brown Bess Muskets!

1601 North Clark Street
Wednesday, July 4, 10:00 a.m.-12:00 pm

Admission is free to this outdoor event on Uihlein Plaza and there is free Museum admission for Illinois residents all day.

And in observance of Independence Day our office will be closed Wednesday, July 4. We will be open during our normal business hours for the remainder of the week.

One of the themes of my Fourth of July talk is how being a good neighbor is a fundamental American value. And see how some of our Old Town friends were very good neighbors to a mama duck and her ducklings.
