We're Getting Started

Dear Friend,

Thank you for granting me the great honor of representing the residents of the 43rd Ward as your Alderman.

Let me first congratulate and thank Alderman Vi Daley for her many years of service to our community and also thank the alderman and her staff for their graciousness in assisting with the transition.

Communication will be key to serving you effectively. I will continue to communicate with all residents on issues that may affect the actual street where you live as well as larger Ward-wide and City-wide issues. This newsletter will be our primary vehicle, but there's more.

My plan is to meet with every apartment building, townhouse and condominium association in the Ward. I know that this will take some time, but it is truly the only way to get a real grasp of the specific issues facing each building. I invite you to contact me and schedule a time for me to attend a meeting and listen to your building's residents.

We will streamline the ways you can communicate directly with me and my staff. We are already investigating ways to simplify your access to my Ward Service Office and offer prompt and informed responses to your requests for service. Whether you call in a problem, email us your concerns or walk through the door for assistance, I want you to be assured you will receive real support and timely follow-up.

In future newsletters, I'll address some of the big issues facing our city: budget issues, public safety, development, and our schools.

But for right now, I just want to tell you hello and to ask for your help. Through your community organization, school, closed to cars from 5:30a.m.-10a.m. for Bike the Drive

church, business, non-profit, or directly with the Ward Office, I invite you to get involved to help me serve you better. We plan to will have an active volunteer corps at our office - and we'd love to have you join. So, please drop me a line or come by the office as we begin a new chapter in the history of the 43rd Ward.

I look forward to serving you and seeing you this summer.
