

CONTEMPORARY PLAYS, CLASSICS & NEW WORK

on the Fullerton Stage 2350 N Racine Ave | 312 922 1999 | theatre.depaul.edu

Join us for Lincoln Park Neighbors Night, Featuring a Pre-Show Reception!

A Free Man of Color

by JOHN GUARE
directed by PHYLLIS E. GRIFFIN

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6TH

Cocktail Reception at 6:30 p.m.,
Performance at 7:30 p.m. with
Optional Post-Show Discussion.
Tickets only $15

on the Fullerton Stage
2350 N. Racine Ave (at the corner of Racine and Fullerton)

*1801, In New Orleans. A Pulitzer Prize finalist in 2011, this absurd Restoration comedy features womanizer Jacques Cornet, the wealthiest man of color in town. Filled with sexual and racial innuendo, his raucous New Orleans is threatened by a new map of the Louisiana Purchase territory.
Recommended for mature audiences.*

RESERVE YOUR TICKETS TODAY!

Use the code “neighbors” when purchasing tickets online at theatre.depaul.edu or by calling our Box Office at 312.922.1999.
All tickets are reserved seating.

Parking and Public Transportation info available by calling our Box Office at 312.922.1999.

Sponsored by

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

COMMUNITY & GOVERNMENT RELATIONS